VOL. XXIX.

NO. 69

MIDDLEBURG.

Our correspondence for Friday's issue was last week too late to be written.

Mr. D. D. Elliott is much better at this writing. Mr. James Wells, who was dangerously ill of pneumonia at our last report, is recovering. Mr. Elijah Latham is sick.

Shannon, the five-year-old son of John J. Lucas died Wednesday after a two days' illness of scarlet fever. Interment in Middleburg cemetery on Thursday, after a beautiful funeral discourse by Rev. Ferrell.

M. W. Jones, the people's candidate for county judge, has been out in the bushes the past week in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Jones is highly elated over his chances of success and assurances of support from the various sections of the county—from men regardless of political affiliations.

J. T. and J. W. Short have purchased of T. H. True, of Yosemite, the hotel and livery property formerly run by J. T. Short, Jr. They also bought the back line from Yosemite to McKinney. Mr. True has moved into his new cottage on Race Street, Middleburg, where he will be located at least temporarily.

The Epworth League held a business meeting Monday night which was well attended. The L. E. will conduct appropriate exercises Thanksgiving day and will give a supper in the evening at the college, for which a small sum will be asked. This society, though only lately organized, is in a flourishing condition.

This year's apple crop is the largest yield in Casey for years. Wagon loads of the fruit pass through here almost daily en route to Danville, Harrodsburg and other Central Kentucky points. The direct apple crop is also immense. The shortness in some crops will be made up in others, so our people will have cause to be thankful as of yore that they are spared another year.

Miss Minnie Stenhouse has returned from Louisville, where she visited last week. Dr. A. R. Caldwell, a rising young physician of Waverly, called on his best girl here Sunday. M. W. Jones was in Liberty Monday on business. V. K. Coleman, who is holding down a lucrative position with the C. & O. at Thomson, W. Va., visited relatives here, returning Tuesday. Oscar Latham visited relatives at Stanford last week.

Mr. Rice Wilson lays claim to the prize pumpkin of the season. He raised one in the bottom that tipped the scales at 70 pounds. It was quite a job to load the pumpkin in a two horse wagon for conveyance to the house. Earl Coffey sowed a three acre corn field in wheat. The ground was so thickly sowed with pumpkin that in harvesting the harrow never once touched the ground for bouncing over the pumpkins. We know this is a big one but true nevertheless.

Every true Kentuckian and Southerner, regardless of political faith, will revere the president's banqueting Booker Washington. We believe that the Negro should be given all the civil rights guaranteed him by the constitution of the United States, but by all means draw the line on social equality. The following from the Atlanta Journal is quite opportune: "Every Negro in the South will feel a shade whiter now that one of his own color has had the privilege of eating at the same table with the president's family. The Southern race problem can never be settled so long as men like Roosevelt persist in adding fuel to the flame."

One William Helm is an avowed candidate for county judge, running independently, though no one is treating his candidacy seriously. His name will go on the ballot backed by a number of more politicians. M. E. Tarter, who is running independently for county attorney, is creating quite a stir and his vote will be surprising, though we are glad to say he is receiving no encouragement from sensible democrats. The billiardist that he has been on democrats when running for office in other counties, has come home. We predict Mr. Taylor's election by a safe majority. To political oblivion with every better seeking office, no matter what his politics.

Crab Orchard.

Mrs. John Hunter is on the sick list. Will James has been quite ill, but is reported better.

Miss Pearl Collins and Fannie Redd are visiting friends in Stanford.

Dr. J. S. Stapp lost a very valuable family horse Friday from lung fever.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Riggs returned Saturday from an extended trip to Indiana.

Mr. John Buchanan, of Louisville, spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Jane Buchanan.

Mrs. Alice Singleton entertained on Friday night in honor of Miss Ewell of Louisville.

The past week was an eventful one for Crab Orchard. David Smith's residence was burned to the ground. The origin of the fire is unknown, but the weather being very dry, a spark may have fallen upon dry leaves on the roof. The family was awakened about ten o'clock and found the building in flames. Belong out of the town limits, very few persons knew it in time to render assistance, hence most of the contents were destroyed. A very fine cow stove and the organ were saved. There was an insurance of $1,000 upon the building and $200 upon the contents. The family is temporarily domiciled in a little house near the Springs hotel. The citizens are manifesting their sincere sympathy in substantial ways. Mr. Smith will rebuild immediately. The building containing the barber shop of the Springs hotel caught fire Monday morning, but by the timely assistance of passers-by and others the fire did but little damage. J. C. Hays lost his barn and contents by fire Saturday morning at four o'clock, origin unknown, and a Mr. Ham, just on the edge of the mountains, suffered the loss of his house by fire, so it seems that the firebug has been busy in his work.

KINGSVILLE.

Mrs. Clara Peters and two boys, of Detroit, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Della McKee, visited relatives in Rowland last week.

Mrs. Chevrolet entertained with an elegant dinner Sunday in honor of her son and his bride. Quite a number of guests were present, including three ministers of the gospel.

Master Jesse, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Walls, died Friday of pneumonia. He was a bright, cheerful child aged three years. Interment in the Pleasant Point graveyard.

The protracted meeting at the Christian church still progresses, conducted by Rev. Mr. Henry, of Henderson. Rev. Dr. Allen returned Sunday and remained a few days. There have been two additions to the church.

John Walls, of Stanford, is here to attend the burial of his little nephew, Dr. C. M. Thompson, returned from Cincinnati, Louisville, etc., Friday. Mrs. John Inman and two children, of Pineville, have been the pleasant guests for the past week of her brothers, W. and J. M. McCarty. Mrs. Inman's children are on their way to the home in Colorado, where her husband has located. W. R. Cudiff and wife are visiting in Lexington. John Howe has made an excellent pro tem. agent while John E. Creighton has been "holding down the fort" in the office. The latter was called to Wilmore Saturday. J. M. McCarty is at home from Cincinnati, where he purchased a large stock of fall goods. W. L. McCarty will go to the cities this week.

Jacob Reynolds, the abductor of Annie Clark, the five-year-old daughter of Mrs. S. B. Clark, of Green county, who was reported to have been captured in Tobiasport, Ind., has eluded the officers and made his escape with the child, who proves to be his daughter. He has notified the mother that she will never see the child again, and declares he will retain her at the peril of his life.

In anemia and most women's ailments the digestion is weak, the making of color, flesh and strength out of food is imperfect so that the patient is weak, nervous and dyspeptic. This condition can be corrected by taking a course of HERBINE. Price 50c. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.

In his annual report Gen. Nelson A. Miles gives the total strength of the army at $4,215, and 43,339 of these men are in the Philippines.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Craig & Hocker's drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as if after the use of pills. Regular size, 25c per box.

Gen. Miles in his annual report says no injury has resulted from the anti-cancer law and in the main the law has been beneficial.

The death of Wm. Gagan, of Louisville, revealed the fact that he had married Miss Della Canfield three years ago.

MATRIMONIAL.

O. D. Miller, aged 50, and Miss Susan Frances Bresler, 21, were made one last week.

Henry Jones, 16, and Miss Mary White, 14, were married with the consent of parents at Laporte, Ind.

When Will Auxier returned from his employment from Mason county to Ohio, the girl's brother covered him with a gun and her father took her home.

For his army Uncle Sam advertises for "unmarried men" only. Upon the theory, doubtless, that all fight has been taken out of the married ones.

Judge Thomas M. Cardwell, until recently a citizen of Harrodsburg, but now post-trader at White Rock Indian Agency, Utah, and Miss Kittie Hanna, of Mercer, were married in the parlors of the Oak House, Louisville.

Joshua Hodge, aged 52, and Rosanna Scaff, aged 51, were married at Lily. Richard Hodge, aged 24, son of Joshua Hodge, and Nancy Scaff, daughter of Rosanna Scaff, were married the same day at the same place—London Democrat.

In the notice in your last issue of the marriage of Miss Gertrude Pennybacker to Dr. Allen, of Somerset, your correspondent was unable, at the time, to depict the closing scenes that followed the elegant and sumptuous dinner, of which not less than 100 guests partook. Louisville, Lexington, Chattanooga, Knoxville and Somerset were well represented. The numerous and gay party showered rice in abundance upon the happy young couple as they started to the train to take their departure. The wedding presents were very numerous and elegant and also very useful, which last is not always the case.

D. M. C.

Justice of the Peace Van Wyck's of fee in Hoboken was the scene today of the quickest marriage on record, says a New York dispatch. The contracting parties were William Stagger and Margaret Jong. They both met in the justice's office, where they had business, for the first time this afternoon. Stagger was attracted by Miss Jong's beauty, the eyes he with a sweet smile and then told her he would give all the world for her. "Well, what's to hinder you from marrying me?" There the judge, "she replied. In three minutes Justice Van Wyck was reading the words that were making the couple man and wife.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power, to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Beecher's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and treat the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for rough, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. Green's reliable remedies at Penny's Drug Store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

The Nashville Methodist Publishing House got its war claim by means of false pretenses, but the bad matter is not going to be bettered by false pretenses of a desire to return the ill-gotten gains to the treasury of the United States. It is a case of "the less said, the sooner mended"—or ended.—Louisville Times.

Happiness depends very much on the condition of the liver and kidneys. The ills of life make but little impression on those whose digestion is good. You regulate your liver and kidneys with HERBINE and enjoy health and buoyancy of spirits. Price 50c. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.

A will drawn by Vice President Hobart, a very shrewd lawyer, has been set aside at Patterson, N. J., because three children were born after its drawing and no codicil provision was made to the will for them.

A WORD TO TRAVELERS.

The excellent incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea and for this reason no one should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Anderson McLain, a Robertson county, Tenn. Negro, sprinkled parts green on the fact his wife still she slept, in the hope that it would kill her. It didn't and officers are looking for him.

An article in a recent issue of a Missouri paper was headed Dunn—Mumm, and explained how Miss Mumm became Dunn. Most women who are Mumm are also Dunn.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Marion Waddle is dead in Pulaski. Berva College has over 800 students. H. H. Baxter is dead at Richmond of pneumonia.

Abe Carmack had his leg broken in a runaway at London.

Frank and James Meadows were killed from ambush in Whitley county. Miss Jennie Poor was the declamatory contest over 10 competitors at Lancaster.

The wife of Judge J. L. Colyer, who was a daughter of D. D. Owens, died at Somerset last week.

James Lay is under arrest at Williamsburg charged with fatally cutting John Mitchell at Corbin.

Ed Williams, white, fired four bullets at John Griffin, colored, at Danville, but failed to hit him. The fight was over in 30 seconds.

In a fight at the "Quarter House," a saloon near Middleburg, between Geo. Mays, colored, and Joe Nales, a white miner, the Negro was killed and Nales fatally wounded.

William Rock, aged 82, father of Editor S. F. Rock, of the Richmond Register, died at his home in Richmond. Deceased was a pioneer civil engineer of the State.

A postoffice has been established at Corydon, Ky. near Oak Hill Church, Rockcastle county, named Hattie, with A. C. Hatt postmaster. The mail will be carried out from Broadhead.

Capt. W. C. Curd, United States Commissioner, and one of the oldest and most influential citizens of Somerset, died Saturday of paralysis. He was a Confederate soldier, for years a leader of democracy in Pulaski and well known in here.

At a meeting of the stock-holders of the Rockcastle County Fair Association held at Broadhead, J. W. Tate was elected president; R. G. Williams, vice president; J. Thomas Cherry, secretary and A. E. Albright, treasurer. R. H. Ham, Per Rigby and Granville Owens were chosen as directors.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the New Fair Association, John Wood, John Roberts and John Baughman were elected to the board of directors and Dave Logan, W. H. Murphy and R. O. Cunningham were made honorary vice presidents. Secretary Bright reported the association to be in a flourishing condition financially. The debt is reduced from $4,500 to $2,000, with a good sum to their credit still in the bank.—Danville Courier.

POLITICAL.

Ferry Heath is a candidate for U. S. Senator from Utah.

Booker Reed has changed his mind and will support the Sapp ticket in Louisville.

It took 294,094 sheets of paper 28x40 to print all the ballots in the State and it weighed 45,920 pounds.

President Roosevelt's message to congress will recommend the creation of a cabinet department of industries.

Senator Mason, of Illinois, says Senator Foraker, of Ohio, is the logical republican candidate for president in 1904.

Major Henry T. Allen, formerly of Bath county, was appointed chief of the Philippine constabulary at a salary of $4,000.

Judge Dishman has decided that William Marcum is the republican nominee for county clerk of Clay county, and has issued an injunction to prevent the same of J. W. Wright from going on the ballot under the log cabin.

An exchange makes this nice mention of our brother: Every newspaper man in Kentucky wants to see Editor W. P. Walton elected railroad commissioner for the 24 district. He is in every way deserving of it, and the best all-around journalist in Kentucky.

The Sixth district will have ten democratic votes for sure in the democratic caucus next winter and may have more, at least one more. It is reasonably sure that the Hon. James B. will get every vote of the Sixth, and as this will be about one-third enough to give him the nomination, and then he has his own district, the Eighth, almost solidly behind him, nearly all of the Ninth, and a part of the Seventh, it makes his nomination and election a foregone conclusion, and this as it ought to be, James B. McCrory is the biggest democrat in Kentucky politics to date, barring Joe Blackburn and one or two others whose names it is not necessary to mention.—Williamstown Courier.

A Card of Thanks.

Through the illness and in the death of our son, Willie, we desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their prayerful attention and assistance, and to all alike we are under obligations that can only be settled through the summons that our boy answered—death.

Our Mendams Laura Moore and Emma Partridge, who so unselfishly and gladly kept watch from start to finish, be it said, with words of infernal meaning to express the gratitude and love in the hearts of Father and Mother.

MR. AND MRS. W. L. HERRIN.
